SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL AMENDMENT

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER FOR PATENTS
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Supplementing the Amendment of October 23, 2002, and in view of the January 7, 2003 telephone interview with the Examiner, the following additional amendments and remarks are submitted.

IN THE CLAIMS:

Please add the following new claims:

--47. A supply element combined with a laboratory microchip, the combination comprising:

a microfluid structure disposed within the microchip and adapted for at least one of chemical, physical, or biological processing;

a first supplier disposed within the microchip and adapted to supply substances to the microchip;

a second supplier disposed within the microchip and adapted to supply a potential to the microchip to move substances corresponding to the microfluid structure; and at least one substance-containing third supplier disposed within the supply element and adapted to contain a substance, said at least one third supplier having a seal arranged to be opened to the microchip in response to the supply element and the microchip being joined together to enable said substance to be transferred from said at least one third supplier to the first supplier of the microchip.
